Celebration Activities

We will begin our morning with a campfire. Please bring a campfire blanket if you have one.

We will then have a small snack before heading off to stations.

There will be 5 stations in the morning. One that is sure to be fun for all is the Beaver Buggies racing station! Don't forget to bring your Buggies!

If your group doesn't make the buggies please come with dinky cars to race instead!

We will end the morning off with a birthday celebration complete with cake!

Getting Connected!

Scout-Guide week is a great way to be connected with your fellow Scouters and to celebrate Lord Baden-Powell.

This year marks Lord Baden-Powell's 153rd birthday. We join Scouters all around the world and celebrate Founder's Day. It is a special day in which we learn more about BP's life and work and have fun!

Leaders and parents attending Scouting events are reminded that photography release permission is included on the Youth and Adult Volunteer registration forms. Parents and Volunteers must check the box if they do not wish to have photos taken of them or their children to be used in Scout Canada Publications. The Photography Release Form (for youth and adults) is to be used for special events which involve collaboration between Scouts Canada and an outside agency. It gives permission for Scouts Canada to share images with other organizations for use in their publications and websites. This must be used for any such event regardless of whether a parent has checked off the photo release box in the registration form. In the case of photographs of events which are used on Facebook or YouTube, for example, leaders, youth and parents are urged to use discretion and to seek the permission of the individuals before posting their pictures on the web.

Thank you for your cooperation!
